From The East

Brethren,

It is with a heavy heart that I inform you that one of our Brothers has passed away. Bro. Nathan W. Driscoll of Corrinna, ME had passed in May and was a 40-year member.

On a happier note, we had a great meeting at the Hunt Home. The Most Worshipful Grand Master was there and we presented Robert Durfee with his 70-year certificate. Ryan Flynn did a great job in presenting information about his window designs for the Lodge. He also presented the three brothers living at the Hunt Home with prints of the windows. This is the second 70-year certificate given out this year; Ray MacDonald was the first.

I want to thank all the officers that helped out last week with the Fellow Craft degree. Bros. Lee Forrence and Gary Waters were Passed on that night.

The visitation season is here. Our visitation is in November and I will be doing a short history on the lodges in our district. I hope many of you can make it to the visitations. It is a way to get to know other Brothers.

Sincerely & Fraternally,

W. : Michael S. Henry, Master

BRO. FLYNN TO DELIVER TALK AT STATED

Bro. Ryan Flynn, our Senior Deacon, will be giving a talk on the art and symbols of the Fellow Craft degree at our October Stated Communication. Please come to witness this interesting and though-provoking presentation.

RESULTS OF VOTES FROM SEPTEMBER

Dues: The Brethren of AYL voted in favor of a $10 increase in Lodge dues to $104 plus Grand Lodge Assessment. The Petition Fee has been increased from $100 to $225. The Affiliation Fee remains at $25.

Future Past Master Dues: The Brethren also voted in favor of changing our by-laws allow for all Past Masters serving from 2012 forward to pay full-rate Lodge dues.

STATEWIDE OPEN HOUSE, 10/19

The NH Statewide Masonic Open House will take place on Sat., October 19 from 9 AM - 3:00 PM. We are calling for volunteers to assist us in speaking to visitors about the history and purpose of Freemasonry and offering tours of the Lodge. We will be looking for help throughout the day, so please come when you can. Let's show our community what it is like for "Brethren to dwell together in unity".
