From The East

Brethren,

First, I want to thank all the brothers again for the high tribute you have bestowed on me by giving me the Sullivan Medal. I couldn't have been more surprised and honored. To the Brothers of Ancient York, the installation went well. We had the Grand Master there, a lot of Grand Lodge officers. Most Worshipful Brother Paul M. Leary, our junior Past Grand Master installed us. We also had a small program for the ladies of the officers to make them feel a part of the Lodge.

The officers have finalized a program for the next six months which is listed below. We need your support for the April 5th event. I will be calling around and selling tickets. We want to sell about 100 tickets so I hope everyone can make it. It would really help the Lodge and will be an enjoyable evening.

I ask our senior brothers to please drop us a note to let us know how they're doing, or come visit at least one of the lodge meetings this year. If you need a ride we can provide one. The meetings are more interesting. We do a program every meeting and there's also a dinner at every meeting. We would love to see you!

Sincerely & Fraternally,

W.: Michael S. Henry, Master
