From The East

Brethren,

I first want to thank all of our veterans for their service. Without them I may not be writing this message. If all you could drop me a note, telling about your service, we could add that to our list of brothers and veterans and keep the lodge records up to date. We have a plaque of WWII veterans who are Brothers from AYL including Bro. Ray McDonald and George Dooley. I would like to see another one that includes all of the veterans since.

I just want everyone to know just how far this lodge has come. Just ten years ago we had just lodge officers at meetings. We'd have 10 or 12 Brothers all together at the meetings. At our Stated Meeting in November, we had twenty-seven brothers and three more came to dinner.

At our Grand Lodge Visitation on November 9, we had the highest turnout of any visitation in the District to that point. You should all be very proud of that.

Please remember that our December Stated Meeting will also include a Fellow Craft Degree for Bro. Crag Dawkins if eligible. It will also include the election of Lodge Officers the next year. Also, our Master Mason Degree for Bro. Lee Forrence is on 12/17. If I do not see you before, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Sincerely & Fraternally,

W. : Michael S. Henry, Master
