From The East

Brethren,

A project I would like to finish before my term ends is, to have a roll sign made that list all of our Brothers that served in the military. We have a plaque for those that were in WWII, but there are others that are not on the list. I now have a list of a lot of brothers that served, but I don't want to miss anyone. If you could send me information about your service, you will be added.

We are going back to the beginning of the Lodge and look through those records for veterans. We will be having a Masonic Veterans night June 1st starting at 3:00. It will be conducted together with our Sister Lodge, Rising Sun Lodge No. 39. The Program be followed by a prime rib dinner with a cost of $10.00; Our veterans and their families will not be charged. Hope to see you all there.

In November, there will be a joint Table Lodge with Rising Sun as our last function for Steve Bahsler and myself as Masters.

I hope to see many of you at our May stated!

Sincerely & Fraternally,

W.: Michael S. Henry, Master

Masonic Travels

Our Junior Warden, Ryan J. Flynn, travelled to Columbia Lodge No. 58 in Frederick, Maryland the first weekend in May to deliver his painting "The Columbia Circumpunct" which was commissioned as a gift to the lodge by its current Marshall, Thomas J. Morris.

Ryan drove down with Worshipful Paul C. Smith, past master of Phoenix Lodge No. 105 in Tilton, NH. After delivering the patent they both visited the George Washington Masonic Memorial and Mt. Vernon, discussing masonry with Worshipful Shawn Eyer, editor of the Philalethes Journal.
