April, 2019 A.D.; 6019 A.L

Nashua, New Hampshire

Greetings from the East,

This is my third Master's message since becoming Master. I recently thinking about how to get all our members interested.

We need to live our truths and demonstrate our tenets: faith, hope and charity and the cardinal virtues temperance, fortitude, prudence, justice. We need to practice these core values among those around us. We need to create a desire, a value and a vision. The Lodge needs to know what's going on in our Brother's lives including their triumphs and tribulations to enable us to help and give support. This is what our Fraternity should be.

As Freemasons, we have an opportunity to bond all our generations together and make our Lodge stronger. The Brother that feels respected and valued will keep coming back to Lodge. Loyalty is priceless.

I hope any of our Brothers that read this will call me if they need help, just want someone to talk to, or visit.

Fraternally, Worshipful Michael S. Henry, Master
