Nashua, New Hampshire

Hello Everyone,

We had a great month as Masons in February and we got a lot done. It was a pretty well rounded month of Masonic activity. Sadly we had to service for Brother Peter Wibber who passed away. We initiated a new member into the fraternity and we performed charity work for a local organization and had a memorial service for Right Worshipful Brother Beaumont.

We will be focusing on ritual in the next several months so we can perform excellent degree work, before we go dark we will be doing our GL Inspection on the EA degree. We have a FC degree coming on Apr 28, and I hope to see many Brothers that we haven't seen in a while. Keep your calendar open for events in October and November!

Our Stated meeting will be opening on the Fellow Craft degree and we will be having an excellent education presentation by Right Worshipful Brother Flynn on aspects of this Degree. Looking forward to seeing you all soon, especially those of you who we haven't seen in a while. Come see your Lodge Brothers and make some new friends!

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Michael R. Mader
Master

2nd District Degree Team Attendees

2nd District Degree Team Performs Outstanding Degree in Nashua

The Second District Degree team lead by our own Chris Busby initiated a brother from Jewell Lodge into the craft on February 29th. The degree featured members of the different lodges in our district including RW Busby as sitting Master, Bro. Gary Waters as Jr. Warden, Bro. Chris Fowler as Jr. Deacon, Bro. Andrew Lane as Jr. Steward and Wor. Joseph Olefirowicz as Organist. The Grand Master was in attendance.

The degree was one of the best performed in recent memory and these brothers should be commended on their fantastic performance and dedication to the craft.

District Town Hall Meeting -3/5

The Grand Master will be hosting a Town Hall meeting on Thursday March 5th at the Pembroke Masonic Temple, 148 Main St, Pembroke. Please plan on attending with any questions or concerns that you wish to discuss. The Grand Master will also be discussing his plans for the upcoming year.
