

From the East

Brethren,

The fall harvest is here. October brings a lot of work to get us ready for the long winter. We, as a Lodge, have some work that we need to attend to. This starts with our meeting on October 11th. Brethren, I know I sound like a broken record, but we want to hear from you.

Ancient York belongs to all of us, every Brother. Sometimes it feels like the Officers are the Brothers doing everything. In an ideal world, the Officers are simply handling the business of the Lodge and representing all of you in the eyes of Grand Lodge. The running of the actual Lodge is, and should be, in the hands of all Brothers.

What I ask of you on the 11th is to show up and tell us what you're looking for. Some questions to ponder are:

- What do I want to get out of Freemasonry?
- What gets me excited to be around the Brothers?
- What has caused me disappointment in the Lodge?
- What is keeping me away?
- How can the Lodge help me feel fulfilled?

These are just some questions to get the conversation going. Please, feel free to voice any other thoughts you might have.

We don't know what's missing or going wrong unless we hear from someone. We can't course correct if we don't know we're off course. Please, Brethren, let us know. Only together can we truly thrive as a Lodge.

Fraternally Yours,
Peter N. LaFauci
Worshipful Master

From the South

"Of all the seasons, autumn offers the most to man and requires the least of him."

—Hal Borland

Masonically, Fall represents balance and spiritual reflection as the seasons are restored to their median point of the Saints John. Autumn is also associated with St. George and his battle with the dragon, propagating strength and goodness against ill intentions. With the harvest season comes drier air which causes stronger mortar bonds and longer lasting brick structure, just as we, as Masons, strive to build stronger bonds with each other.

We form bonds with each other through shared principles, obligations, and friendship. A Masonic Bonds is Brotherly in nature. Many Masons see these bonds as familial for we look at our Brothers as a second family. When our Brothers are hurt, we share their pain. When they celebrate, we rejoice with them.

Reach out to your Brothers. Ask them how they're doing. Invite them to lunch. Join them for a drink. Get together to watch a game, or a movie. More importantly, get together for the sake of being with each other. Brotherhood happens outside the lodge just as much as it does in it.
